

Place-making and Cultural Development Officer (Lomond Hills) Part-time (0.5 FTE) 15 month post

The Centre for Stewardship is seeking a Place-making and Cultural Development Officer (Lomond Hills) to work with the Living Lomonds Landscape Partnership to design, deliver, promote and sustain a programme of high quality cultural activities that will encourage people to become more aware of and engaged with the natural, designed and industrial landscape of the Lomonds and Benarty Hills.

The post-holder will work with partners, local people and stakeholders engaging people of all ages and backgrounds to make the most of opportunities for cultural celebration and cultural engagement.

Deadline for applications: 5pm on Friday 16th March. Interview day: Wednesday 28th March.

This is a 0.5 post (17.5 hours per week) and a 15 month appointment. The salary for this 0.5 post is £15,000 per annum (£30,000 full time). Holiday entitlement for this 0.5 post is 17.5 days per year (including public holidays). There is no pension attached to this post.

Please email your completed application form to helen@centreforstewardship.org.uk or post to the Centre for Stewardship, Falkland House Stables, Falkland Estate, Falkland, Fife, KY15 7AF.

Post is funded by Creative Scotland.

Person Specification

Place-making & Cultural Development Officer (Lomond Hills)
Attributes	Essential	Desirable	Assessment
Experience	Experience of community work Experience of undertaking and managing cultural activities Experience of working in and with a landscape and/or the natural	Experience of marketing and market analysis Fundraising experience Experience of cultural planning and development work in a tourism and/or	Application form, interview and references

	heritage	regeneration context
Education, Qualifications & Training	Qualification in an appropriate discipline e.g. Community work or heritage/creative industries	A second qualification in an appropriate discipline	Application form and interview
Skills, Abilities and Knowledge	Understanding of land and landscape issues Demonstrate a high degree of diplomacy Ability to record, analyse and present data	Demonstrable fundraising skills A working knowledge of cultural tourism	Application form, interview and references
Interpersonal & Communication Skills	Excellent written, communication and IT skills Creative and practical thinker Team player	Ability to use of new media to engage audiences	Application form, interview and references
Health & Physical Attributes	Fit and able to explore and engage with people in the landscape		Application form and interview